THE LAST EVENT FOR THE QUEBEC STUDENTS

Barbecue party finished student exchange program

EXCHANGE STUDENTS PLAY VOLLEYBALL
... at Saturday's party

The Quebec exchange students, who have visited St. Albert since Aug. 14, went back home Sunday afternoon. The last event on their great variety program during their stay here, was a big barbecue party, sponsored by the Lions Club and led by Dr. William Cuts' home.

"We haven't had time yet to sum up our impressions good enough to give our picture in details, but I can say for sure that we all have really enjoyed our time in Alberta and St. Albert," said student Aline Levisque.

"This part of our country differs so widely from what we are used to. I think it's a great opportunity for young people to participate in an exchange program like this."

Saturday the boys played ball while the girls spent time writing memorial notes in each others books. Later the visitors and their hosts enjoyed a good barbecue steak, Western style, roasted by the Lions Club's experienced team. With the speed the meat disappeared from the plates, there were no doubts as to how well the guests appreciated the meal.

The guests and their hosts spent the rest of the evening talking about their time together; first in Quebec and then in St. Albert, and exchanging the last addresses.

For a long time ahead, there will be an intensive correspondence between St. Albert and Joliette, Que.

Public hearing set regarding rezoning of W. Grandin Park

Council took a sharp look at an outline plan for development in West Grandin Park on Monday night and followed it up with first reading of bylaw 38/69, the first step towards rezoning of Riverlot 54.

The outline plan was submitted by Irvine Kipnes of Dalcon Management Corp., representing the firm which is planning a three-stage condominium development on Riverlot 54.

A public hearing will be held in the council chambers at 7:35 p.m. Sept. 22 regarding the rezoning. Written objections to the proposed bylaw should be in the hands of Secretary-treasurer D.B. O'Connell by 4:30 p.m. Sept. 17.

Oral presentations will be recognized at the meeting, but not until all written submissions presented before the deadline have been heard. The bylaw will remove from residential comprehensive (RX) to:

Residential one family (R1C), a piece of Riverlot 54 south of Glenhaven Cres.

Residential multiple family (R3), the main portion of Riverlot 54 running along the railway tracks;

Public use (P), a section of Riverlot 54 directly south of the portion that is being rezoned R1C.

Commercial class 2 (C2), an area south and west of Gainsborough Avenue.

A35-classroom school has been planned for the area which is to be rezoned for public use. Vincent Maloney, superintendent of the St. Albert Public School District No. 3, told council the school would probably have to be increased to 42 rooms because of increased density created by the condominium development.

The developers were to meet with school board officials Tuesday night.

Council may take a look at curfew

As a result of the rash of vandalism in the town recently, Councillor Frank Lukay suggested Monday night that council should take a look at the possibility of a curfew.

Informed that St. Albert had two curfews on the books, but that they weren't being enforced, Councillor Lukay suggested that maybe it was time they were brought back.

Councillor R. G. Wheatley said he abhorred any kind of curfew. "It reminds me of places such as Czechoslovakia."

Council, in a jocular mood throughout the discussion, nevertheless decided to take a look at the curfew bylaws.

COUNCIL notes

Councillor Bob Russell presented a notice of motion Monday night regarding an ice plant and enclosed hockey facility for St. Albert.

Councillor Russell said he was not envisioning an arena but "we have a responsibility to put up some facility." He said cold weather washed out about 60 per cent of the minor hockey program in the town last winter.

Mayor Gibbon and Councillors J. J. Bakker, Frank Lukay and Rene Kambouroff will attend a meeting Sept. 10 of the board of the Edmonton and Rural Auxiliary Hospital and Nursing Home District No. 24.

Discussion will centre around the possibility of establishing an auxiliary hospital in St. Albert.

Mayor Ray Gibbon, all councillors and D. B. O'Connell, town secretary-treasurer, have been designated as delegates to the 63rd Annual Convention of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association.

Council is allowed seven votes at the convention and Mr. O'Connell will be able to vote in the absence of one of the councillors.

St. Albert man wins rally

E. M. Walsh of 30 Gresham Blvd. has been declared winner of the first annual International Police Association (Region No. 5) car rally. Presentation of the cham-plonship trophy to Mr. Walsh was made by Sergeant Sam Donaghy at the annual IPA picnic held in Edmonton on Sunday, Aug. 24.

A building under construction at the corner of Sunset Boulevard and Edmonton Road caught fire at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. The fire started between two walls in a bathroom on the upper floor. The fire brigade had the fire extinguished after half an hour's work. The damage has not yet been estimated.

Richard Fowler resigns as S.C. president

In a surprise move Monday, Richard Fowler, former mayor of St. Albert, announced his resignation as president of the St. Albert Social Credit Constituency Association.

His letter to the secretary of the association, Mr. B. Montpetit, said:

After due consideration, I have come to the conclusion that my personal political philosophy and that of the Social Credit Party are no longer parallel.

I therefore believe it to be in the best interest of all concerned to resign my office as President of the St. Albert Social Credit Constituency Association and my membership in the Alberta Social Credit League effective immediately.

"It appears obvious to me that a number of ministers in the present provincial government are making important decisions on a purely political basis, without proper regard for the facts," said Mr. Fowler in an interview with the Gazette publisher Tuesday.

The attempt being made at present to establish a new university facility in the southern part of the province, despite the population and growth trend statistics, was cited as an example of such political manoeuvring by Mr. Fowler.

He rides 1 1/2 hours to play baseball

You can always tell how interested a boy is in a sport by what he'll do to get to play.

Some will do almost anything. Others won't walk across the street.

Michael McNeely, who will be 14 on Sept. 13, is a classic example of a boy who wants to play.

Mike and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McNeely, moved from their home at 17 Bishop St. into the London-derry district of Edmonton this spring.

For most boys, it would have meant the end of their association with sport in St. Albert. But not Mike.

He travelled by bicycle twice a week to play with the Pirates bantam baseball team, a 45-minute trip each way from his home at 75A Street and 150th Avenue.

He would come by country roads but return by 137th Avenue.

"It's too dangerous on the back roads after dark," he says. "You ought to see some of the cars travel."

Mike became involved in the Little Canadian Baseball program in St. Albert last summer, stepping off the path taken by his brother, Philip, who was captain of the midget soccer team. He played with the St. Albert all-star team on the championship trail and as a member of the Pirates, St. Albert champions, competed in the provincial playoffs at Breton. It was following this that Mike and other graduating members of the Pirates, Gerald Langevin, Hans Commandeur, Steve Hoffart and Timmy O'Neill, decided they would like to go into bantam baseball together this summer.

They did, moving up with coach Doug Millroy, and Mike and Steve also stayed around to help him coach the Little Canadian Pirates.

The bantam Pirates didn't exactly have a successful summer, bowing out of the playoffs in the semi-finals, but to Mike it was fun worth the 90 minutes on a bicycle twice a week.

the Gazette REFLECTS

The statement on school costs made last week in Calgary by Education Minister Robert Clark seem to us so unrealistic as to not even make sense.

After saying that the "public is beginning to raise a storm over the mounting cost of education, which could hit Alberta," Mr. Clark went on to obliquely extricate the provincial government from all responsibility in the matter, by giving the local school boards some kindly advice on what to do about it.

There are two better ways of easing the tax burden on property owners than larger provincial grants, said Mr. Clark. One would be "to allow school boards to make budget estimates for more than one year, and to establish priorities." And who is responsible for "allowing" the boards to do so? Under Social Credit's brainchild, the foundation program, the local boards can't finalize the current year's budget until they know what is coming from the foundation plan. This year the St. Albert boards were still waiting for this figure in May.

As for priorities, the school boards and municipalities have been telling the provincial government loud and clear for some time that just to provide adequate classroom space and teaching staff is taxing the property owners almost to the hilt.

And Mr. Clark's second suggestion to school boards is that they "spend only what is necessary, saving other expenditures until they can afford them."

It is extremely doubtful that the public is going to blame the local school boards for the problems of financing education in Alberta. There seems little use in the minister telling us that in areas such as Newfoundland and the voters have put limits on what school boards can spend. Albertans are well aware that the flow of revenues into the Alberta government since the war is such, that if Newfoundlanders had had the same they would think they were in Utopia. For a government always beating the drum on all they are doing for "Human Resources" the priorities for education should have been laid down more than 20 years ago, when it began receiving oil and industrial revenues beyond the dreams of the "have-not" provinces.

And the general public is not only concerned with the cost of education, they are also greatly concerned with the quality of the education they are assessed so heavily for. They hear Mr. Dennis, co-author of the Hall-Dennis report on education in Ontario, say on television that "50 percent and probably more of the kids in high school don't give a damn about school." They are told by the famous anthropologist, Margaret Mead, over the national network, that we are one hundred years behind in educating students to live in modern society. And they hear provincial governments jealously guarding their rights to authority in matters of education.

Yes, Mr. Clark - we do need some priorities established. We've needed them for a long time. Social Credit has been in power in Alberta for 34 years.

Oilers reach final in Oilfield baseball

St. Albert Willowbrook Oilers will travel to Leduc this weekend for a double-knockout tournament that will decide the Oilfield Baseball League championship. Oilers won a spot in the tournament last Wednesday night by knocking off Winterburn Tomahawks 9-2 at Winterburn for their third straight victory in the round-robin semi-final.

It was Tomahawks' second loss, putting them among the also-rans with Calmar Angels. Oilers had earlier defeated Angels twice.

Leduc Oilers, who finished ahead of St. Albert in the Eastern Division of the League, and Warburg Buffaloes and Breton Eagles, first and second-place finishers respectively in the Western Division, are the other teams entered in the final.

Oilers will meet Warburg at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Leduc and Breton will tangle in the opening game at 11:30 a.m.

Fred Resler got his third straight win of the semi-final in the tussle with Tomahawks, hurling shutout ball while Oilers built up a seven-run lead over the first five innings, largely on the strength of a five-run burst in the fourth.

Tomahawks collected two runs in the bottom of the fifth but it was the last look they got as Resler put them down in order in the sixth and darkness shut them out in the seventh.

Rickie Perrault swung the big bat for Oilers in the game, connecting for two singles, a double and a triple. Adrian Boddes socked three singles. Oilers had 13 hits all told.

Resler gave up only three hits to Tomahawks. He got solid support from his mates, however, as he struck out only two batters. He walked two.

Oilers were to meet Alexander Braves in a game at Mission Park Diamond tonight at 6:30 to prepare for the weekend tournament.

Dodgers leading bantam ball final

Dodgers took a one-game lead in the Fire Department Bantam Baseball League final on Monday night, nipping Senators 8-8 in a game shortened by darkness to four innings.

Second game of the series will be held Thursday night at Mission Park Diamond at 6 p.m. with the third, if necessary, there on Friday.

Dodgers gave up two runs in the top of the first inning, but came back for four in the bottom of the second. They put their hitting shoes on in the second and collected another four runs off Terry Kleser, who had replaced

Jim Wallin on the mound for Senators in the first inning.

Going into the third with an 8-2 lead, Dodgers came out of it tied 8-8 as Senators put some timely hits around a few walks and errors.

Held scoreless in the bottom of the third, Dodgers broke the deadlock in the bottom of the fourth.

Stephen Lister and his brother, Matt, led off the inning with walks. Doug MacKenzie flied out and then Maurice Gauthier walked. Stephen scored on Ernie Mitchell's ground ball to the infield.

Mitchell went all four innings on the mound for Dodgers to gain credit for the win. Kleser took the loss.

Bob Mallory, coach of the senior Oilers, umpired behind the plate. Keith Perrault handled the bases.

RECREATION Hi-Lites

TENNIS

Bernice and Roberta Parsons, members of the St. Albert Tennis Club, did well in the finals of the junior city tournament for inter-club players. Bernice was a finalist in the under-18 mixed doubles and won the under-18 girls' singles. Roberta was finalist in three events: the under-16 girls' singles and mixed doubles and the under-18 girls' singles.

Entry forms for the invitational "B" tournament to be held on Sept. 6 and 7 can be obtained by phoning Mrs. Angie Sonntag at 599-6884.

Note: the annual tennis club dance will be held on Friday, Sept. 12, in the Club Mocambo.

ANDRE EBACHER PRESENTS MAYOR GIBBON
...with flag of the Province of Quebec

Town honors visiting students from Quebec

Lt.-Gov. J. Grant MacEwan the guest speaker at the banquet sponsored by the Town of St. Albert during the visit to St. Albert of the 24 exchange students from Joliette, Que.

The banquet, chaired by Mayor Ray Gibbon was held on Wednesday, Aug. 20, in the Club Mocombo and was attended by the students from Quebec as well as the 24 St. Albert students who had just returned from their tripeast. Members of council and the committee in charge of the arrangements for the visit were also present.

The need for communication between races and peoples was stressed by the lieutenant governor. He also mentioned the importance of Canadians getting to know each other by visits such as the students from Quebec and Alberta had just exchanged.

After the dinner, Mayor Gibbon was presented with a flag of the Province of Quebec by the visitors and the students from both St. Albert and Joliette made presentations to their supervisors, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Glenn, from St. Albert, and Mr. and Mrs. Andre Ebacher from Joliette.

On behalf of the town, Councillor Rene Kambourff gave each Quebec student and their supervisors souvenirs of their visit to St. Albert.

The students had a swim party later in the evening at the pool followed by a get-together in the Club-house.

FATHER: This report card says that you failed in everything but geography.
BOY: Sure. I don't take geography.

The difference in language made few if any barriers between the students from the east and those from the west.

COMMUNITY NEWS

The programs for the community activities for the fall in Athlone, Calder, Kensington and Wellington are starting to take shape.

The first community league meeting in Athlone is slated for the second week of September. Athlone cubs and scouts will start by mid-

September as will the Friday night bingos in the hall at 13010 - 129th St.

In Wellington Park, League President Jack Bruce has the fall program pretty well lined up but says it is still too early to mention any exact dates. The once-a-month dance is going to continue as usual, and will start during September.

Membership weeks for the community leagues in Athlone, Calder, Kensington and Wellington are supposed to be held in September, but there is only one date mentioned yet; the membership week in Athlone is planned to be held during Sept. 15 to 20.

In the sport section a great variety of activity is coming up for the fall in Athlone, Calder, Kensington and Wellington. There are now in most cases only a few games left in soccer before playoffs.

In September all activities are to be registered for the fall and we will return in a couple of weeks with a complete line-up of the sport program.

As a whole, the communities are a little bit slow right now, but as most people soon are home again from late summer holidays and as the schools starts, activities will be going again in many sections of the community life.

Salesman from the city: "What's that strange odor?" Farmer: "Fresh air."

A new principle is an inexhaustible source of new views.

HOUSE OF HORRORS
... at Calder's penny carnival

A great day for Calder kids

Calder Teen Club finished the summer park program last Thursday with a penny carnival and for a couple of hours the playground was crowded with kids who visited a House of Horrors, climbed a greasy pole, tried their luck in the fishing pond and did many, many other funny things, all for a penny or two.

The carnival marked the final of the city's park and recreation department's playground program and was at the same time an effort to raise money for Calder Teen Club's winter program.

"We have about 100 teens in the area and we are trying to get a program going for them this fall," says Terry Gwathney, teen director. "We hope to be able to arrange dances and other activities."

Terry organized the penny carnival with the help of Shirley Anderson, park director, and Dorothy Fellows of the Wellington Playground and members from the Teen Club.

On one spot, the kids tried to climb a greasy pole to reach a piece of candy at the top; the time an effort to get a prize for the successful prize. A few steps away was a great auction

When Perry Billingsley joined the St. Albert Lions Club last fall, it was for all the usual reasons--the fellowship, the opportunity to meet people, the desire to get involved in community service.

Well, throughout the winter months, all these things came true for the young Mr. Billingsley. He found the good fellowship he sought, he met many new people, he got his chance to get involved in community work.

Perry, the Lions membership chorused, you are just the man to take over from Rock Holman as chairman of our Little Canadian Baseball Operation.

COACHED HOCKEY

Fresh off a winter of coaching the Wolves in the Shavers Hockey League along with Jerry Verhagen, Perry eagerly accepted.

He got right to work drawing up plans for the season with the members of his committee, Leonce Cote, who was in charge of umpires, and Lorne McKinstry and Glen Ward, who were to handle statistics. Ken Moore, co-ordinator of boys and girls activities for the club, also gave a hand.

They got everything down on paper and it looked good, really good.

Then all hell broke loose.

PHONE CALLS

Registration forms had hardly been distributed when the phone at the Billingsley residence at 19 Greenwich Cres. began to ring right off the hook.

Parents, dozens of them, had questions, dozens of them.

When Perry wasn't answering the phone, his wife, Jerry, was.

"I thought it was going to be awful," Jerry says, "but it lessened after the first week."

With the outcoun in calls coming in, however, there was a sizable increase in calls going out. The plan so carefully drawn out on paper wasn't coming across so well on the ball diamond.

LOOKED GREAT

"It really looked great on paper, it really did," Perry still says. "Leonce and I were to have all free time so we could tour the diamonds to make sure everything was running smoothly. But it just didn't work out."

"Leonce had to ump jump about every night himself

ROGER MEUNIER OF THE ANGELS ATTEMPTS TO GET IN THE LAST WORD

...Jim Wallin knows he's kidding, but umpire Billingsley isn't sure and I ended up taking over from coaches who couldn't make it or umpiring."

Perry, who is 31, won't say himself how much time he spent on baseball this past summer, mentioning only that for the first two weeks he spent three hours on the phone on four nights out of each of them.

Wives, although prone to exaggeration in matters such as these, are still a good source of information. "He spent at least three nights a week and possibly four right through the season," Jerry volunteers. Perry will dispute the statistics. Leonce Cote knows, because he was putting in the same kind of time.

But Perry isn't discouraged because his original game plan didn't come off too well. He's just going back to the drawing board to come up with a better one. Next season he plans to have an expanded executive.

EXPANDED CREW

He'll have three people doing the job he did this year and possibly four if his plans for expansion come off. There will also be additions to the executive end of the umpiring staff.

Perry feels the basic problem is getting people involved.

"About 60 per cent of the people who coach baseball also coach hockey," he says. "It seems to be the same people who volunteer whether it's hockey, baseball or some community thing."

When registration forms were distributed this year, they contained a plea to parents to act as coaches or umpires. There was little response.

"We haven't five per cent of the parents involved in baseball," he says, "and we have just about 300 boys playing."

Under the new set-up Perry has planned, more Lions will be drawn into the operation in an executive capacity. The free time he intended for himself and Leonce this year will be there next summer if, of course, the paper this time holds out.

Perry would like to see three divisions next summer. One for boys eight to 11 years of age which would probably consist of two leagues prepping boys to step into Little Canadian.

NEW SET-UP

The Little Canadian League would consist of six teams and would represent St. Albert in provincial play-offs. This year representatives went from three Little Canadian Leagues.

"We don't really have the talent for three leagues to enter provincial competition," Perry says. "And by operating three leagues the younger boys often don't get the chance to play that they should."

There is also the fact that it costs 50 cents to register each player with Little Canadian, one half the price charged players to register. Total income in the league this year was $300, but operating expenses came to $1,300, the remainder made up by the Lions Club, the KCs and the town.

TAKE IN BANTAM

The third division would be bantam. Perry intends to approach the Fire Department, which gave financial assistance to help get the league operating this year, about putting the whole baseball system in St. Albert under one roof.

He hopes, also, with a little luck, to be able to get facilities so St. Albert can put on the regional Little Canadian championships here next summer.

Even though his paper plan didn't quite work out this year, Perry has to regard the season as a success. The Lions just organized baseball last summer and began with 12 teams, two falling by the wayside before the season was over. One short season later 18 teams were in operation and all finished the season.

BALL IMPROVED

Also, all three leagues entered representative teams in the provincial play-offs and all put on creditable showings, the calibre of ball greatly improved over the first year.

The season isn't over yet. A team will compete in the provincials at Warburg on the Labor Day weekend and there will also be a playoff between the Pirates of the Sturgeon League, Expos of the Mission League and Angels of the Grandin League for the St. Albert championship.

There will also be a father-and-son barbecue in Lions Park on the last weekend in September to award trophies won during the season.

Two St. Albert air cadets who also double as brothers enjoyed a very exciting summer. Ron Maine, 16, got his pilot's licence on a scholarship provided by Lions International through the efforts of the local club's sale of tickets last spring. Trevor Maine, 16, attended a senior leaders' course at St. Jean Military College. Both boys are members of St. Albert Squadron 533.

We welcome the following to St. Albert:

Pirates play in Warburg

St. Albert Pirates, champions of the Sturgeon Little Canadian Baseball League, will travel to Warburg this weekend to compete in the provincial playoffs.

Teams are normally allowed to pick up two extra players for the tournament but Pirates will add a third as they won't have the services of ace pitcher Dale Reinbolt.

The St. Albert team entered the provincials in Breton last year but lost three straight games.

Players will be billeted in homes at Warburg during their stay there.

The teacher asked her small pupils to tell about their acts of kindness to dumb animals. After several heart-stirring stories, the teacher asked Tommy if he had anything to add. "Well," he replied rather proudly, "I kicked a boy once for kicking his dog."

RCMP find vandals often very young

More than $500 damage was done to the old Father Jan school by vandals recently.

The incident was just one of a long list under investigation by the local detachment of the RCMP this summer.

Staff Sgt. Ken Williams said Monday several of the vandals had been caught but his department didn't know yet what course of action to take because of their age.

"You would be surprised at the age of some of them," he said. "Some are just eight years old. You wouldn't think children of that age could do so much damage."

Sgt. Williams said most of the youngsters were too young to bring charges against. "They wouldn't know what a juvenile court was all about," he said.

It is expected that in most cases parents will be approached to make good the cost of repairing the damage.

Pirates lose to city team

St. Albert Pirates lost an 11-4 decision in nine innings to Glengarry Little Canadian Baseball Team from Edmonton last Thursday.

Pirates trailed 6-0 after the regulation six innings, but an extra three were played as the first six went by in 55 minutes.

Glengarry added two runs in the seventh and three in the eighth. Their first six all came in the fourth inning.

Pirates got three in the eighth and one in the ninth. Dale Reinhold started on the mound for the Pirates and faced only nine men over the first three innings. He struck out five of the first six batters.

With one out in the fourth, however, he walked a batter and then the next one was safe on a bunt single. Sandy Milroy took over with two runs in and the bases loaded, but four more runs were in before he registered the third out.

Milroy kept Glengarry off the scoresheet in the fifth and sixth innings, but ran into a jam of his own in the seventh. Brian Benton came on to end that one but he in turn needed help from Chris Hoffman in the eighth.

Glengarry, in the north city playoffs the weekend previous, came out of the four-team tournament in first place.

Dental hygienists appointed

The Board of Health of the Sturgeon Health Unit has announced the appointment of two dental hygienists, Miss Barbara Nishaus, RDH and Mrs. S. Watson, RDH. The health unit now has a full staff of 22.

Dr. Arnold Abramson, dental health officer, explained the training of a dental hygienist takes two years and includes health sciences, dental techniques and clinical dental hygiene; particular skills are acquired in painting the teeth with fluoride solutions and in dental health education.

One problem with local clinics is the large number of missed appointments, one patient in 10 defaults in St. Albert and one in 10 elsewhere. The demand for appointments is such that anyone missing an appointment faces a long wait until another is available.

No money in tourney for Oilers

When St. Albert Willowbrook Oilers travelled to Vimy for a baseball tournament on the weekend, they had their eyes set on a fat payday.

The way it turned out, however, they may as well have stayed home and saved the gas. Because on this day, the only way they were going to pick up any loose change was by chasing foul balls.

Oilers bowed out in their first game, showing only a ripple of protest as Linaria walked away with an 11-3 decision.

They displayed some power, but this was mainly in comments directed toward the umpire, not with their bats. A single by Richie Perreault was all they could muster there.

Linaria, meanwhile, was counting the cash, scoring two runs in the first inning and six in the second for an 8-0 lead, a sizable margin even for Little League ball.

Oilers' agony was to last until the fifth inning, however, when Linaria pushed across the 11th run and merciful officials said that's enough.

Fireballer Larry Perrott started on the hill for Oilers, but gave way to Bert Kenney in the second inning as Linaria displayed a fondness for fast stuff.

Kenney's Junk kept Linaria off the scoresheet until the fourth, when two more runs scored. Linaria got the 11th run off Fred Resler, who took over after Lou Mar-

Thibault starts opportunity room opportunity room in morinville. The board of trustees of the Thibault Roman Catholic School District No. 35 will open an opportunity room 'n September. This will be a special and much needed service to the children and parents of Morinville and District.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mason has been retained as the teacher. She has extensive teaching experience and has been in charge of two opportunity rooms previously, the most recent being the special room in Ponoka. She aims first to get the child's interest, then slowly tries to develop the child's language and arithmetic skills.

At the same time she gives attention to the child's sensory motor skills and special talents. It is her aim to return each child to his regular classroom according to his ability to achieve.

The opportunity room child is one who probably shows low achievement for the following reasons:

a) emotional problems; b) sensory impairment; c) cultural deprivation; d) learning disabilities. The teacher faces a complex task and attempts to reach these children by solving their learning needs and wants and also doing attempts to return the child, wherever possible, to his regular educational stream.

School is scheduled to open on Tuesday, Sept. 2nd.

Morinville

Patrice and Laurie White, members of Morinville Bowlers, held a penny circus at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White on Aug. 21, raising $5.70 for the Canadian Red Cross Children's Fund.

Some 30 playmates enjoyed the afternoon entertainment. The girls presented the proceeds to Mrs. Rose Martel, district Red Cross Chairman, for forwarding to Edmonton Red Cross Headquarters.

Miss Blanche Sabourin and her brother, Albert, have left for an extended motor trip to La Belle, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chalfoux have moved to their new home in St. Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. Armand Himschoot recently celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary.

Many of these children may perform in the normal or even gifted range when they are not impeded by present conditions or problems. The teacher attempts to change their achievement and behaviour over a period of time, often with the help of other specialists.

Since there are as many patterns of achievement as there are children, the educational prescription for each child will depend on the evaluation of his strengths and weaknesses and the stressing of his special abilities and talents.

Such a child working in isolation under normal class conditions can in no way approach the dynamism of the interaction between a trained teacher and the student, which can take place in a good opportunity room.

The Thibault board is anxious to develop this service to the fullest and thereby "complete" the education of many special students.

Constance is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Theberge and Laurent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Maurier, all from Legal.

Father Pigeon performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with baskets of summer flowers.

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked radiant in her exquisite nylon chiffon over peau de sole empire line gown with long chiffon cuffed sleeves with diagonal lace appliques. Her detachable train flowing from the waist was trimmed with matching lace. Her bouffant nylon tulle illusion veil was held in place by a cluster of tulle and lace arrangement. She carried a bouquet of red roses accented by white lilies of the valley. The bride's lovely gown was made by her mother.

Bridesmaids were Irene Theberge, Marlene Reginald and Gloria Nobert. Best men were Remi Corbiere, Remi Bolle and Raymond Rivard.

Mrs. Jeanne Maurier and Mrs. Lucienne Montpetit were soloists and Rachel St. Martin was the organist.

Following the wedding ceremony a banquet was held at the Community Centre for some 200 guests. Walter Van De Walle was master of ceremonies, Rene Maurier brother of the groom, proposed the toast to the bride.

Some 400 guests enjoyed the evening refreshments and dancing.

Out of town guests were from Calgary, Grouville, Fort McMurray and Falher. The newlyweds will honeymoon at Disneyland, Hollywood, Las Vegas and Mexico. They will reside at Legal.

BOYS' SOCCER

The St. Albert Little Atoms played their first league game last Wednesday against Delwood and won by a score of 5-1. Johnny Mercer scored two goals for St. Albert while Graham Brown, Martin Holden and Dallas Zahara scored one each.

Their next game will be in the semi-finals for the Challenge Cup at 1 p.m. on Sept. 6 against Lauderdale in the Kinsmen Fieldhouse. These little fellows are aged 8-10 years and put up a tremendous fight - they play darned good football too! St. Albert should be very proud of them and we should all make a point of going to the Fieldhouse on Sept. 6 and cheering them on to a spot in the finals which will be held on Sept. 21. In the absence of Tony Holden (their regular coach) they are training every night under the guidance of Geoff Brown. All registered teams are now out practicing for the Edmonton and District League and our local leagues will be getting underway shortly.

Senators advance

Senators scored nine runs in the bottom of the sixth inning last Friday night to defeat Pirates 20-17 in the final game of a best-of-three semi-final in the St. Albert Fire Department Bantam Baseball League.

Pirates had won the first game of the semi-final 10-5. Senators came back to win the second 21-5.

Senators will now advance to the best-of-three final against the Dodgers, who won a bye into the final by finishing first in the regular schedule.

The final game was a comedy of errors, as neither team had any defence at all. Pirates got four runs to open the first inning but the Senators came back with six.

It was 9-4 Senators after two innings. Pirates then began to attack with vigor and over the next three innings moved into a 16-11 lead. They added another in the top of the sixth, but then suddenly found they could do nothing right. Senators were fast to take advantage of it.

The game was called after the sixth because of darkness.

Gordon Sinclair umpired behind the plate; Mike Hampel handled the bases.
